

Academy Performance Group Theatre Company

Academy Performance Group is our first level audition only theatre company for those ATA students who have a true passion for musical theatre performance and wish to advance their theatrical training to a more intensive level. Members of Academy Performance Group Theatre Company have the ability to perform in their own full-length production in March as well as being the showcase performers in both the January and May ATA school showcases. They are also able to attend the Broadway Bound with YPA Conference in June. The APG Theatre Company is the musical theatre equivalent of a sports travel or tournament team and APG company members MUST be committed and take their placement and responsibility to the company very seriously.
